

Haida Gwaii: Where Nature and Culture Converge

Haida Gwaii is the name of an archipelago that has been home to the Haida people for over 13,000 years. It was formerly named the Queen Charlotte Islands. British Columbia transferred ownership of hundreds of islands back to the Haida people in 2024.

Intrepid traveler and photographer, Bunny Laden, will share her experiences traveling through Haida Gwaii aboard a 12-passenger sailboat, whose crew included two respected Haida leaders. Her talk will explore Haida culture and the rich flora and fauna of Gwaii Haanas National Park Reserve.
