

We Are Still Here!

Members of the Muwekma Ohlone tribe will discuss:

- Muwekma Ohlone cultural history and efforts to preserve and maintain it, including repatriation of ancestral remains, land access, and stewardship.
- Current efforts to be recognized by the Federal Government and obtain sovereignty.

Julie Dominguez is a member of the Muwekma Ohlone tribe and she leads the community education efforts. She is a California Native dancer. Julie graduated from the Green Foothills Leadership Program for environmental leaders and activists in 2022.

Corina Arellano is a member of the Muwekma Ohlone tribe and she co-chairs the community education efforts for the tribe. Corina and her family are involved in California shake head style dance. She is also a board member for the Muwekma Ohlone Preservation Foundation.

Where: Saratoga Library
13650 Saratoga Ave.
Saratoga, CA 95070

Date: Saturday, January 24, 2026
When: 1:30 p.m.

Please join us and bring a friend!

Sponsored by the Los Gatos-Saratoga AAUW and the Saratoga Library in cooperation with the Muwekma Ohlone Preservation Foundation